

FRENCHY TALKS.

referred to anything in English, which he declared he understood "very little."
He came down from his cell at a brisk pace between two keepers and looked eagerly at his visitor.
While being questioned he stood with his nose between two bars and his black eyes glinted like a couple of shiny beads.
From his appearance he is by no means an idiot, as he has been described. He has been compared to every kind of a man, from a Turk to a Malay negro, but he looks really just what he is—a lean, thin, gaunt Arab, with all the characteristics of his race.
Inspector Byrnes has said in advance that Frenchy has no brains and is intelligently on a par with a South American monkey, and this statement was backed by no less an authority than Dr. Franklin Edson, Chief of the Bureau of Congenital Diseases of the Board of Health.
August Edson, who is a prisoner in the Tombs on a charge of abducting girls acted as interpreter.
He understands Frenchy's patois of French and Algerian, and repeated the questions to the prisoner.
Frenchy answered without hesitation all questions about his history: as to the murder of Carrie Brown, he denied that he ever knew Carrie Brown, at least at that name, or as "Sweetie" or "Jazz" or "Daisy."
"I knew a number of the old women in that locality," he declared, "but none of them by name."
"Were you not at the hotel the night prior to the murder?"
"No, I slept in Brooklyn. I can't tell where. The police know, though. They went there and found I told the truth. On the night of the murder I slept in the East River Hotel, though. I went in about midnight. I gave $5 cents to Ed, the boy, and he took me to my room. I don't know the number of the room until the police told me later."
"Did you know that any woman whom you had ever known was sleeping just across the hall?"
"No, I did not."
"How often have you slept in the East River Hotel?"
"Only that once. I was in there once before with a woman, but did not stay long. I was alone that night. I was tired after searching the docks all day in vain for work, and fell asleep as soon as I got to bed. I awoke about 6 o'clock. No one called me. I walked out and did not meet any one on the way out."
"I was not at the hotel when I went to the hotel. I did not have any money with which to get drunk. The money for my bed I begged. Ten cents here, 10 cents there and a nickel another place. I did not run away. I was looking for work when I was arrested."
"How do you account for the blood that was found on the clothes and underwear you wore that night?"
"On my clothes the blood came from a man with whom I quarrelled some time ago. They were old stains and did not amount to anything."
He then gave his explanation as to the stains found on his hands and feet. It was plausible and worthy of credence.
Continuing his story, the suspected man declared, excitedly and with much gesticulation: "I never killed that woman. I never killed any woman."
"Did you ever bite Mary Ann Lopez in the arm?"
"To this question he would not give a direct answer, and claimed he did not know the woman named."
"I met them all in saloons," he said, "and would give one some money now and another at another time. I had no particular friend among the women. I went with him, old and young. He was a big fellow. I only liked old women. I never inquired their age."
He admitted having been arrested and locked up in the Queens County Jail, Long Island City.
He denied, however, that he tried to start a riot there. "I was out of work and sick when I went there and was locked up as a vagrant. Do you think the authorities would have permitted me to have a knife there?" he asked.
He said he was a native of Algeria and had a wife there. He was eight years in the French army there, and left two years ago and went to France and then to Brazil, and came to this country eight months ago. He is a sailor by occupation and says he is thirty-five years old. His right name is Ben Ali, but he called himself George Frank here.
WAS IT FRENCHY'S KNIFE?
AN EVENING WORLD reporter called at the Long Island City Jail this morning with a view to getting a more definite statement as to the alleged attempt by Frenchy while a prisoner there to stab his fellow prisoner, John Duffy. Also to find out whether the other prisoners, Galloway and Smith, had positively identified the now blood-stained knife which was used in hacking Carrie Brown's body as the one which Frenchy had been threatened with.
Sheriff Goldner admitted to the reporter that he had notified Inspector Byrnes of the knife incident and that Detective McNaught and McCall had come to the jail yesterday with the knife.
Frenchy had been brought over to the jail several days previously, when the Sheriff identified him as a vagrant who spent a month in the jail from Middle Village under the name of George Frank, and who was released April 15, ten days before he was arrested.
According to Inspector Byrnes's statement Galloway and Smith said they had often seen Frenchy using the knife while eating his meals in the prison.
The murderer's knife is an ordinary table-knife with a black wooden handle. The blade was about four inches long. It has a sharp point.
INVESTIGATION BLOCKED.
If such a knife was allowed in the possession of prisoners at the jail, would it be remarkable, and the reporter put several questions to Sheriff Goldner with a view to bring out the actual facts.
Was it a table-knife belonging to the prisoner or Frenchy's own personal property which he had with him when arrested?
Was Frenchy seized of when brought to the jail, and was he known to have the knife?
Was the knife positively identified by the prisoners as the one Frenchy had, or was their identification qualified?
When did the alleged attempted stabbing of the prisoner Duffy occur, and who witnessed it?
Was it reported to the prison keeper or Warden at the time, and was the knife taken from the prisoner "Frenchy" at the time?
To all these questions, Sheriff Goldner, seemingly reasonable and in the interest of the truth, Sheriff Goldner obstinately refused a reply.
He would give no information whatever, and also refused to allow access to the prisoners said to have identified the knife. Neither would he allow the reporter to see the official records of the prison.
Sheriff Goldner refused to give any reason for his reticence.
"THE KNIFE, ON ONE SIDE,"
Inspector Byrnes said to an EVENING WORLD reporter this afternoon that he had nothing new to add to the evidence against Frenchy. He declined to say what his opinion and conclusions were on the entire lot of evidence which is alleged to have been gathered against the prisoner in the shape of blood-stains on his clothing and the alleged identification yesterday by two prisoners in the Queens County Jail.
"I understand," he said, "that they

MAYOR GRANT'S PLUMS.

Right Important Appointments Made This Afternoon.
John E. Kelly Police Justice in Gen. Cochrane's Place.
Barney Martin Commissioner of Juries and E. P. Barker Tax Commissioner.
Mayor Grant today negatived some of the recent rumors to the effect that he would not make any of his May appointments until after the return from Europe of ex-City Chamberlain Richard Croker by disposing of the following list of appointments:
JOHN E. KELLY, a 35-year-old District Attorney, in place of Gen. John Cochrane, resigned to-day, salary $5,000; term nine years.
EDWARD P. BARKER, President of the Department of Taxes, in place of Michael Coleman, salary $5,000; term six years.
DR. CHARLES E. SIMMONS, Commissioner of Charities and Corrections, reappointed; term six years, salary $5,000.
BERNARD F. MARTIN, Commissioner of Juries in place of Charles Kelly; term six years, salary $5,000.
ABRAHAM H. TAPPEN, reappointed Commissioner of Public Parks; term six years; no salary.
MICHAEL T. DALY, Commissioner of Accounts in place of Edward P. Barker, resigned, salary $5,000; term six years.
CHARLES C. P. WALKER, Commissioner of Accounts in place of Maurice F. Holahan, resigned.
CHARLES STRAUSS, a lawyer, Commissioner of Education, in place of Frederick W. Devos, resigned, salary $5,000; term six years.
Commissioner of Public Works Gilroy announced that he will appoint Maurice F. Holahan as his deputy in place of Bernard F. Martin, who resigned.
Of these appointments Mr. Barker is the present Commissioner of Accounts. Dr. Simmons is the present Commissioner of Charities and Corrections. Bernard F. Martin is Deputy Commissioner of Public Works. Mr. Tappen is the present Commissioner of Public Parks and Mr. Daly is Chief Clerk of the City Court, and Mr. Walker, Mr. Strauss and Mr. Kelly hold no public office.
John E. Kelly was born in this city in 1855. He was educated in the public schools; was Clerk of Ways and Means Committee of the Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses. Clerk to the Committee of Public Health of the House of Representatives of the Forty-eighth Congress, and Clerk to the Eleventh Judicial District Court from 1885 to 1891. He is in the real estate business, with an office in the Stewart Building.
All of the appointees are Tammany Hall Democrats except Mr. Barker, who is a member of no organization.
The new School Commissioner is a warm personal friend of Mayor Grant.
Tax Commissioner Barker is a resident of the Sixteenth District, and Commissioner of Juries Martin is a brother of Police Commissioner Martin and the leader in the Seventh Assembly District.
Bernard F. Martin has been Coroner and Order of Arrest Clerk to the Sheriff.
At one of the best saloons on Bleeker and on Sixth avenue.
Park Commissioner Tappen resides in the Twenty-fourth Ward.
Commissioner of Accounts Daly belongs to the Eleventh District organization and his office is in the Commercial Hotel, on Broadway.
Commissioner of Charities Simmons lives in the Twentieth District, and School Commissioner Strauss in the Nineteenth.
John B. McDermott, of the Fifteenth Assembly District, will probably be appointed to succeed Mr. Kelly as Chief Clerk of the City Court at a salary of $5,000 a year.
The Mayor has yet to appoint two Police Justices in place of Henry Murray and John B. Smith, a Dock Commissioner in place of James Matthews, and a Fire Commissioner in place of Anthony Eschscholtz.
Much comment has been excited because Gen. Cochrane should resign so valuable a position as that of Police Justice.
His friends explain that the General, who is an old man of sixty-six years, dislikes the Police Court procedure very much, and has threatened to resign for a long time.
The aged Justice used to try Police Court cases with as much care as he would one in the Supreme Court, and he would not countenance the methods by which most Police Justices clear their calendars to a new month.
KILLED A LITTLE BOY.
A Child Run Over by a Third Avenue Horse Car.
Seven-year-old George Biegel, of 254 East One Hundred and Fourth street, was run over in front of 180 Third Avenue this afternoon by car No. 282, of the Third Avenue line, and was instantly killed. Driver Charles G. Boettger, of the Third Avenue line, pronounced the car a conductor Thomas Cochrane, of 883 Third Avenue, were both arrested.
